

ARC Discontinued Business Seminar & Convention

23 February 2010 · Merchant Taylors' Hall · 30 Threadneedle Street · London

Golden Goose or Swan Song – where next for the Ugly Duckling

08.00 Registration and refreshments

09.00 Welcome from ARC Chairman Paul Corver of R&Q

09.10 When all your birds have flown – Lehman Bros; an overnight example of discontinued business.

Will there be any pickings for the legacy sector from the banking crisis?

What can we learn from Lehman Bros and what can they learn from legacy; comparisons between bank and insurer run-off; regulation issues; UK control issues; who has your capital? Presented by Dan Schwarzmann of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

09.40 Panel debate – No more feathers for your bed – is traditional run-off in free fall?

What's the future for solvent schemes following Scottish Lion; can the US policyholders drive run-off business in London? Is the London Market shrinking to match its resource needs as old business closes out, only to be hit with court decisions such as Exxon/Kuwait?

Examining the latest trends are our panel of experts led by ARC Director Mark Everiss of EAPD LLP.

10.40 Getting your ducks in a row – What are the regulators views on legacy development – Our speaker is Andrew Dyer of the FSA

11.00 Refreshment break kindly sponsored by Reynolds Porter Chamberlain LLP

11.20 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: Where is your nest egg and how is it doing? Update on the current state of the capital markets, investments and insurer health. How are reinsurers reacting and benefiting from the economic uncertainties? Charles Coyne of FinnCap followed by Judith Zeleny of Munich Re.

12.00 Panel debate – Taking all your eggs from one basket – should pleural plaque claimants be compensated?

Reviewing the science and discussing the varying legal positions between member countries of the UK, our panel speakers are: Emma Costin, Partner at, claimant law firm, Simpson Millar, Mike Rawlinson, QC of Kings Chambers, Manchester, (rep. insurers in Rothwell case), Darren Michaels of Deloitte LLP member of the UK Asbestos Working Party & Dr John Moore-Gillon of the Royal London and St Bartholomew's Hospitals.

13.15 Lunch break – served in The Courtroom kindly sponsored by Watson Wyatt Ltd

14.30 Networking event begins, tables for meeting and greeting may be pre booked FOC

15.30 There will be a Members Only breakout session in The Kings Gallery. This will potentially include a VAT update, CEIOPS & Solvency II.

16.30 ASP will follow on with a small panel discussion topic tbc; this will be open to all delegates.

17.30 Drinks reception in The Parlour kindly sponsored by

A range of exhibitors will be attending the event as well as our Media Partners

Non members full day ticket is £298 with half day £150, both plus VAT. Members prices are £230 & £100 plus VAT.

Half day entry is from 14.30 only but includes the reception.

Registration is open on www.arcongress.com and programme updates will follow as further speakers are confirmed.