

The Lime Street Guide to Lloyd's* now published

London 14th September 2009

Lime Street Publications is pleased to announce the publication of The Lime Street Guide to Lloyd's.

Brought together for the first time as a landmark reference book, The Lime Street Guide to Lloyd's is a unique resource profiling the people and the companies operating within the world's leading insurance marketplace.

The Lime Street Guide to Lloyd's has been introduced at the Rendez-Vous de Septembre in Monte Carlo and an open house event is planned in London shortly.

Containing in-depth personal profiles of leading figures at Lloyd's and over 500 'mini profiles' of the senior directors and other management of Lloyd's companies, this 600 page Guide captures the very essence of this unique, fascinating and vibrant part of the worldwide insurance industry. It also includes company details and contact data for all these people as well as information on all the Lloyd's Associations and Societies; plus an historical overview and much more.

The Lime Street Guide to Lloyd's focuses principally on the people in this 321 year old institution rather than the financial statistics.

Note to Editor:

Barbara Schurer, the Editor and Publisher, has celebrated her 21st anniversary as a Lloyd's Member providing capital to the syndicates at Lloyd's. She stood for election to Lloyd's Council a few years ago. This book is her "Homage" to Lloyd's and its people whose amazing skill and expertise in arranging some of the most complex risk transfers in the world, she deeply admires.
