26 January 2012

TURNSTONE EXPANDS WITH HIRE OF EXPERIENCED DUO

Insurance audit and inspection company, TurnStone, part of the multi-discipline innovative insurance services Parabis Group, is expanding with the hire of two highly-experienced senior auditors.

David Everington and Alec MacMillan will be working alongside TurnStone head, Steve Bond, to meet the growing demand among insurers and reinsurers for independent audit and inspection services.

In his 37 years in the insurance and reinsurance sector, David Everington has gained wide international experience and detailed knowledge of technical premium and claims audits in the aviation, marine and non-marine sectors. He is joining from Compre Services (UK) Limited where he was Audits & Consultancy Manager.

Alec MacMillan, who has 15 years' experience starting life as a claims adjuster in a run-off business, joins from Chilton International Ltd where as a Senior Consultant he has specialised in, among other things, contract data analysis and ICA calculation for transfer of a European Reinsurance portfolio into the UK.

Commenting on the hires, Steve Bond said: "We are delighted that two such experienced professionals as David and Alec are joining the TurnStone team. We have seen a significant increase in demand for our insurance and reinsurance services, notably from Lloyd's syndicates and European clients. David and Alec are well-known in the London and International market and their knowledge and experience will be added assets we can now offer our clients."
