

STRATEGY | INNOVATION | EXPERTISE

A strategic move to enhance the way we do business...

Randall & Quilter Investment Holdings plc has pursued a buy and build strategy to create a comprehensive range of investment activities and services in the global non-life insurance market.

Each is overseen by an expert team with extensive experience and a proven track record earned over many years. Strategy, innovation and expertise are at the core of everything R&Q does.

From 8 March 2010, all businesses will be rebranded and operate under a single name – R&Q, which will enable clients to identify the full scale and scope of our offering.

Each investment activity/service will operate under one of the following divisions:

- Insurance Investments;
- Insurance Services;
- Underwriting Management; and
- Captives

Commenting, Ken Randall, R&Q's Chief Executive Officer, said, "R&Q is able to provide the market with a highly flexible range of products and services to meet specific needs. All this is delivered under the umbrella of a robust, financially stable, listed parent company.

The decision to reorganise under four divisions reflects our desire to consolidate and extend our presence in each of these core areas".

The new corporate structure will operate across four divisions:

Insurance Investments

The acquisition of legacy portfolios and reinsurance debt and the provision of long term risk capital.

Areas of focus include:

- Purchase of legacy insurance/reinsurance companies/captives
- Liquidity management
- RITC
